

IDEA
Raffle Rules

February 18, 2020

1. Individuals purchasing raffle tickets will list the current years prizes in order of their priorities. In other words, the individual purchasing the raffle tickets will write down their prize priorities on their ticket(s).
2. If a raffle ticket does not have the priority of the prizes stated on their ticket, then the IDEA Directors conducting the raffle will determine the suitable prize.
3. If an individual purchases more than one raffle ticket, they are eligible to receive more than one prize if more than one raffle ticket is selected for that individual. That individual has the right to refuse consideration for more than one prize should they have more than one ticket selected.
4. Drawing raffle tickets for the prizes will be done by IDEA Directors unless other individuals are so invited to participate by the IDEA President.
5. Only one raffle ticket at a time will be drawn. If more than one ticket is drawn at a time than those tickets will reenter the container and a new ticket will be redrawn.
6. If an individuals is not present for the raffle and their ticket is drawn for a prize(s), then the IDEA Directors will coordinate with the recipient District (or agency) to determine the best and most feasible way of getting the prize to the recipient who's ticket was drawn for the prize.
